PREPARED FOR PINSON LAND SERVICES · OCTOBER 2026

Mineral Title Research for Renewable Sites, Traced to the Recorded Instrument.

Severed-mineral, heirship, and curative research that your title managers can fold straight into Pinson deliverables — built to the recording conventions of the state it covers, every finding indexed to its recorded instrument.

- ◊ Principal-led, second-examiner-reviewed
- ◊ Courthouse research in any U.S. state

BIC REA LLC is not a law firm and does not render legal advice, legal opinions, or title insurance. Reports are research deliverables for use by the client and its licensed counsel.

THE PROBLEM YOUR DEVELOPERS BRING YOU

Severed-mineral owners can use the surface. A solar array needs all of it.

In most states a severed-mineral owner may use as much of the surface as is reasonably necessary to reach the minerals. Texas's El Paso Court of Appeals has held the accommodation doctrine governs solar-versus-mineral disputes (Lyle v. Midway Solar, 618 S.W.3d 857, Tex. App.—El Paso 2020, pet. denied). Title policies except severed minerals in Schedule B, and the array endorsements (ALTA 35.3, 36.9) insure improvements, not mineral title — so underwriters want the severance search done first.

WHAT HAS TO BE FOUND

Every severance, by depth and by product

Patent reservations, mineral deeds, fractional heirs, unreleased mineral mortgages, dormant interests — traced from sovereignty forward, not from the last vesting deed.

WHAT HAS TO BE DOCUMENTED

An index an underwriter can work from

Chain, fractions, and curative items tied to recorded instruments, so agreements go to the right owners. In Lyle, agreements signed by people with no interest in the tract clouded the true owners' title.

WHERE THE TIME GOES

Owner location

Most developers want signed agreements from the mineral owners giving up their right to use the surface before they build. Finding those owners can take the better part of a year — longer where heirs or long-dormant interests are involved — so the research has to be done first.

A RESEARCH BENCH BEHIND YOUR TITLE MANAGERS

You keep the client and the deliverable. We do the research behind it.

Pinson's title managers set scope and own the relationship. BIC REA delivers the severed-mineral chain, heirship work, and curative identification in your template — white-label under Pinson's cover or co-branded, your call — with a non-circumvention agreement covering every developer you introduce. Use us where your bench is thin — renewables-heavy states, heirship-heavy tracts, or overflow when a campaign spikes.

◊ Severed-mineral chain, sovereignty to current

Patent forward. Every reservation, mineral deed, and fractional conveyance logged with grantor, grantee, instrument, and recording data — the format you saw in the Grant County report.

◊ Heirship and owner location

Probate, estate, and public-record tracing to current owners of record, led by a California-licensed private investigator and paralegal applying investigative methods to courthouse research.

◊ Curative identification and dormant-mineral screening

Each item sourced and categorized for counsel's evaluation, including statutory cure paths where a state provides one (for example, Washington's Extinguishment of Unused Mineral Rights statute, ch. 78.22 RCW).

BIC REA LLC is not a law firm and does not render legal advice, legal opinions, or title insurance. Reports are research deliverables for use by the client and its licensed counsel.

WHAT IS — AND IS NOT — IN THE REPORT

A documented analysis of the record, built for your examiner.

IT IS

Research counsel can build an opinion on

Current record ownership as reflected in the instruments examined · surface and mineral estates separated · undivided-interest fractions computed from the recorded language · encumbrances, leases, and mining claims · curative items identified, sourced, and categorized · a source index so every finding traces to an instrument · BLM and state records cross-referenced · GIS mapping included with every report.

IT IS NOT

A legal opinion, a certified abstract, or title insurance

Drilling, division-order, and acquisition opinions are issued by independent licensed counsel engaged directly by the client; we deliver our research in the form counsel needs. Attorney title opinions are available upon request through independent licensed counsel. We do not issue certified abstracts in states that license abstracting. Off-record matters are outside the scope of records-based research.

◊ Every report carries a second-examiner review, independent of the preparer — details on slide 8.

WHO DOES THE WORK

A SENIOR EXAMINER ON EVERY FILE; LANDMEN UNDER HER DIRECTION; A SECOND SET OF EYES BEFORE ANYTHING SHIPS.

◊ Senior examiner

Leads and signs off on every report

Chain-of-title work completed in 30+ states. Research led by a California-licensed private investigator and paralegal who applies investigative methods to courthouse and public-record heirship and current-owner-of-record tracing. Where licensed investigative services are required outside California, we engage properly licensed local investigators.

◊ Landmen

Courthouse work in any U.S. state

Index searches, runsheet drafting, and instrument retrieval by our full-time landmen, supplemented by vetted contract landmen — in most cases people we have worked with before — sized to the county count and timeline. Chain examination, interest calculation, and sign-off never leave the senior examiner. Named personnel provided with each engagement.

◊ Second examiner

Independent of the preparer

A second examiner who did not build the chain re-traces each finding to its recorded instrument, re-runs the undivided-interest math, and confirms every curative item is logged with its source. Named in the engagement letter, not just promised here.

◊ 4 full-time landmen available for any project, and we are adding more — plus at least 3 additional landmen available on a contract, per-project basis.
